Not every decision is easy when it comes to technology. You know you need technologies, like imagers and scanners to make your business more productive and efficient. However, getting technology integrated isn't your core focus, so there is a lot riding on making sure the project gets done right the first time. Dolphin Data Capture gives you the competitive advantage because of our experience in technology integration. Our team has more than 25 years of experience in designing and selling products and technologies. We serve businesses in healthcare, logistics, hospitality, retail, and other industries.

In addition to being a premier OEM integrator for Zebra Technologies, Dolphin Data Capture is now a Zebra Partner Connect member, giving our customers access to all Zebra products from scanners to hand held computers and printers and supplies.   Zebra is the worldwide leader in technology that helps frontline workers achieve a performance edge through the use of enterprise products, software, analytics, and other solutions. Businesses across the globe use Zebra products and services to connect their employees, track assets, and analyze data to improve performance.
